3 killed in Oz shooting

FPU News Desk
MELBOURNE

When Australia's PM Anthony Albanese was apologising for his government's failure to prevent the Bondi attack, three people died and another sustained injuries in a shooting in New South Wales.

Flags were flown at half-mast as the country observed a memorial event at Sydney's iconic Opera House, titled "Light Will Win".

"You came to celebrate a festival of light and freedom and you left with the violence of hatred. I am deeply and profoundly sorry we could not protect your loved ones from this evil," Albanese said in his speech to the relatives of the Bondi attack deceased.

A minute's silence, including on the TV channel, was held across the nation after 7 pm in Sydney as the memorial began. Attendees lit candles and heard speeches from lawmakers and Jewish prayers and video tributes.

Buildings, including cricket stadiums in Melbourne and Perth, were illuminated, while play was paused during the Australian Open tennis tournament to observe the silence.

Sovereignty not negotiable: Denmark PM

Copenhagen: Denmark's PM insisted her country cannot negotiate on its sovereignty on Thursday after US President Trump said he agreed on a "framework of a future deal" on Arctic security with the Nato head.

Denmark Prime Minister Mette Frederiksen said security in the Arctic is a matter for all of Nato, and it is "good and natural" that it be discussed between the US president and Nato chief Mark Rutte "on an ongoing basis", including before and after he met Trump in Davos.

She wrote Nato was fully aware of the kingdom of Denmark's position that anything political can be negotiated on, including security, investment and economic issues — "but we cannot negotiate on our sovereignty."
